

Quarterly Financial Statements FY 2025

First Quarter

Statement of Financial Position

Assets, liabilities, and equity balances were reviewed and reconciled. Cash and cash equivalents remained sufficient to support operational requirements.

Statement of Financial Performance

Revenue collections from local taxes, permits, service fees, and national transfers contributed to stable financial performance throughout the quarter.

Management Discussion and Analysis

Budget utilization remained within approved appropriations. Expenditures were focused on personnel services, maintenance and operating expenses, and priority development projects.

Second Quarter

Statement of Financial Position

Assets, liabilities, and equity balances were reviewed and reconciled. Cash and cash equivalents remained sufficient to support operational requirements.

Statement of Financial Performance

Revenue collections from local taxes, permits, service fees, and national transfers contributed to stable financial performance throughout the quarter.

Management Discussion and Analysis

Budget utilization remained within approved appropriations. Expenditures were focused on personnel services, maintenance and operating expenses, and priority development projects.

Third Quarter

Statement of Financial Position

Assets, liabilities, and equity balances were reviewed and reconciled. Cash and cash equivalents remained sufficient to support operational requirements.

Statement of Financial Performance

Revenue collections from local taxes, permits, service fees, and national transfers contributed to stable financial performance throughout the quarter.

Management Discussion and Analysis

Budget utilization remained within approved appropriations. Expenditures were focused on personnel services, maintenance and operating expenses, and priority development projects.

Fourth Quarter

Statement of Financial Position

Assets, liabilities, and equity balances were reviewed and reconciled. Cash and cash equivalents remained sufficient to support operational requirements.

Statement of Financial Performance

Revenue collections from local taxes, permits, service fees, and national transfers contributed to stable financial performance throughout the quarter.

Management Discussion and Analysis

Budget utilization remained within approved appropriations. Expenditures were focused on personnel services, maintenance and operating expenses, and priority development projects.

Notes to Financial Statements

These statements are sample reports intended for demonstration purposes in a City Accountant Office website prototype.